Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

"Bambra House" is locally important as a post Edwardian residence demonstrating an exceptionally skilful treatment of the diagonal axis which was invariably a feature of houses of the period.

Physical Description 1

An exceptional single storeyed Federation villa distinguished by the corner treatment of the verandah with radiating sun's rays motif to the frieze, surmounted by a shingled balcony, now enclosed. This axis is further accentuated by the approach steps and corner bay window. Other elements are highly representative of the era and include projecting half timbered gables, a porthole window and lead light work to the main window.

Physical Description 2

Condition: good

Physical Description 3

Good, later additions including donor windows.
