Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

The former Glen Huntly Post Office is situated at no. 122 Grange Road on the Glen Huntly Road corner, Glen Huntly. It was established as a post office in 1930 and ceased to be used for this purpose during the 1990s. It is of historic significance.

It is of historic significance (Criterion A) as the former centre of postal services in Glen Huntly for more than sixty years and although not a purpose built structure has historic value on account of this long standing use.
