Physical Description 1

A late Victorian bi-chromatic brick Gothic Revival villa with black Hawthorn body bricks, oriented towards Orrong Road and having an asymmetrical form. The projecting wing facing west has a tri-partite window with round arches and lancet shaped drip moulds in the manner of the period. The surmounting gable end has a moulded coping with corbelled treatment in stucco extending down the corners to link with red brick banding. Other windows are flat arched with hood moulds and stucco work whilst the verandah occupies the south-west aspect and has distinctive cast iron lacework and spandrels. It gives access to the front door.
