Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

Historically a near complete (externally) example of the simple timber corner or neighbourhood shop, as distinct from those in main thoroughfares such as nearby Victoria Street.

Architecturally, it is typical of an uncommon type (timber corner shop) and possesses early entry and shopfront details which so often have been altered in other Footscray examples. Recommended for individual planning protection.

Physical Description 1

A weatherboarded, hipped roof shop and residence with the typical splayed corner plan and recessed entry. Shopfronts either side of this entrance are typical of use and era.

Integrity

External Integrity:

Awnings have been added and a new but sympathetic shopfront on the Buckingham Street frontage.

Physical Description 2

Streetscape:

Surrounded by similar aged timber houses, representing a cohesive residential precinct, in this case complete with the traditional corner shop.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
