NICHOLSON RESIDENCE

52883 NIcholson Residence

nicholson res.jpg

Location

11 NICHOLSON ROAD CAPE BRIDGEWATER, GLENELG SHIRE

Municipality

GLENELG SHIRE

Level of significance

Recommended for Heritage Overlay

Heritage Listing

Glenelg Shire

Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

What is significant?

The Nicholson Residence, located approximately 1.2km west of the township of Bridgewater is a symmetrical four-roomed stone house facing north with a detached stone kitchen on the south side. The panelled front door with a rectangular fanlight above and the two front 12-paned double-hung sash windows are typical of the midnineteenth century. There is a narrow central passage. The main chimney breasts are opposite the front windows. The front wing appears to have been re-roofed in the early twentieth century incorporating the verandah on three sides to create a bungalow form. Part of the side verandah has been enclosed. There is a small gablet in the roof on the east (roadside) elevation. The kitchen wing has been linked to the front wing by later additions of indeterminate age and has been extended with late twentieth century, possibly 1970s, skillion additions. The builder of the house is not known, but the land was first owned by George Hicks Terrill and James Wadmore. The house is in good condition, but retains only a low degree of integrity.

How is it significant?

The Nicholson residence is of historical significance to the Glenelg Shire.

Why is it significant?

The Nicholson residence is of historical significance as a typical example of Cape Bridgewater-style early stone houses, which used local materials, simple designs and solid construction techniques. The additions over time to the house demonstrate the changing needs of the occupants, and different building fashions, particularly the reworking of the stone house into the bungalow form in the 1920s. Of further historical significance is the association which the residence has with the Wilson family, who have lived on the Cape since 1855, and made strong contributions to the local community.

Heritage Heritage Study Part One, Carlotta Kellaway, David Rhodes

Study/Consultant

Mandy Jean, 2002; Glenelg - Glenelg Heritage Study Stage Two (a), Heritage Matters, 2006;

Construction dates 1860,

Hermes Number 52883

Property Number

Usage/Former Usage

Residential

Physical Description 1

The dwelling is a symmetrical four-roomed stone house facing north with a detached stone kitchen on the south side. The panelled front door with a rectangular fanlight above and the two front 12-paned double-hung sash windows are typical of the mid-nineteenth century. There is a narrow central passage. The main chimney breasts are opposite the front windows. The front wing appears to have been re-roofed in the early twentieth century incorporating the verandah on three sides to create a bungalow form. Part of the side verandah has been enclosed. There is a small gablet in the roof on the east (roadside) elevation. The kitchen wing has been linked to the front wing by later additions of indeterminate age and has been extended with late twentieth century, possibly 1970s, skillion additions.

Physical Conditions

Good

Historical Australian Themes

2.4: Migrating

2.4.2: Migrating to seek opportunity

2.4.4: Migrating through organised colonization

2.4.5: Changing the face of rural and urban Australia through migration

2.5: Promoting settlement

3. DEVELOPING LOCAL, REGIONAL AND NATIONAL ECONOMIES

3.5: Developing primary production

3.5.1: Grazing stock

3.5.2: Breeding animals

3.5.3: Developing agricultural industries

3.9: Farming for commercial profit

3.11: Altering the environment

3.11.4: Clearing vegetation

- 3.11.5: Establishing water supplies
- 3.12: Feeding people
- 3.12.2: Developing sources of fresh local produce
- 3.14: Developing an Australian engineering and construction industry
- 3.14.2: Using Australian materials in construction
- 3.16: Struggling with remoteness, hardship and failure
- 5. WORKING
- 5.1: Working in harsh conditions
- 5.6: Working in the home
- 5.8: Working on the land

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/