Physical Description 1

This Georgian structure was built for Edith Green in 1935 to designs prepared by Arnaud Wright. It is a mature example of the Georgian Revival style. It is noteworthy for both the quality and quantity of its detail which includes an impressive portico with columns styled after the Greek Doric order and for its shutters which feature decorative fretwork recalling funerary urns.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
