This building is part of a semi-detached pair built on the corner of St Georges Court for Mrs. E.A. Nunn. This residence is first listed in the rate books in 1941, a year later than its partner at 1 St Georges Court. Both parts of the structure draw inspiration from Georgian sources, although this is the more convincing of the two. It presents a strict symmetrical facade to St Georges Road with decorative treatments to windows and balconies in cement render.
