Statement of Significance

Last updated on - January 5, 2010

REVISED STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE, CONTEXT, 2010

What is significant?

The 19th century portable cell lock-up and the surrounding site to the title boundaries (Also see HO122).

How is it significant?

The portable cell lock-up is historically significant to the Shire of Nillumbik

Why is it significant?

The portable cell lock-up is historically significant because there are only a few such structures in existence throughout Victoria and because it was probably moved from another country town to the site and thus illustrates the practice of re-locating institutional buildings on the basis of need (Criteria B & A).

2009 UPDATE

The police station has been DEMOLISHED (new building in 2007) and the portable cell block MOVED to Allwood House, Hurstbridge
