Physical Description 1

Edwardian Factory.

Three storey, brick 'box-like' factory-warehouse with symmetrical facade of steel hopper sash windows and simple parapet and a cornice line above and below a name panel. A string course runs across the facade at first floor level. Reinforced concrete lintels are typical. The ground and top floor have no windows on the west side.

Condition:

In good condition. Paint is not original and ground floor entrances have been altered.

Context:

Located in a predominantly residential area.

Comparative Analysis:

Typical use of undecorated brickwork, steel windows and concrete lintels. Unusual in its scale in a residential setting.
