Physical Description 1

10 Allard Street is a single storey timber house, with a hipped and gabled corrugated iron roof. The front facade has a return verandah with a bullnose profile corrugated iron roof and cast iron lacework and a bay window beneath the projecting gable, which itself has a timber finial. The chimney is of red brick with a corbelled top. There is a rear wing of brick. The original allotment has been subdivided, but the picket fence and gate appear to be original.
