Physical Description 1

2 Second Avenue is a single storey timber-framed bungalow. The walls are of stained weatherboard, and the house has a gabled terracotta tiled roof. To the east of the south (front) elevation is a projecting gable; both gable-ends have shingle and weatherboard cladding. The verandah pillars and an external chimney wall and stack are unpainted rendered brick.

The front fence and side lattice are possibly original.

Key Architectural Elements: stained weatherboard cladding unpainted rendered surfaces

Principal Historic Themes: early 20th century suburban development
