Physical Description 1

193 Weston Street is a simple single storey bluestone cottage. The front door is slightly off-centre, and is flanked by single windows. The walls are of is quarry-faced stone, with bluestone quoins and sills to timber-framed double-hung sash windows. It has a hipped slate roof and bluestone chimneys. The verandah has a bullnose-profile corrugated galvanised steel roof on turned timber posts and a decorative cast iron lacework frieze. The turned timber verandah posts and bullnose roof profile indicate the verandah is not original. Two the rear of the house is a double storey red brick wing, also with a hipped slate roof and corbelled brick chimney. The front fence, of iron pickets on a bluestone base, is possibly original.

Key Architectural Elements: bluestone construction original slate roof
possibly original iron picket fence
