Statement of Significance

Last updated on - December 5, 2007

A multi-storey Edwardian office building constructed in 1904 and of special significance because of its corner location and relationship to the important 19th century commercial buildings near the corner of Collins and Elizabeth Streets. That prominence would be enhanced by the reconstruction of the building's corner tower (now missing).

Classified: 06/06/1994

Note: The tower was reconstructed in 2000.
