Statement of Significance

Last updated on - May 6, 2005

16 Studley Avenue, a single storeyed six roomed house with a second storey set within the steep roof line, was built in 1909 for a Mrs Treadway, with a seventh room added in 1915. The building is of significance as a substantially intact house of the Edwardian period and is integral to the concentration of such houses in this part of Kew.
