
Former Crown Law Office & John Simpson Mackennal Sculpture

B2935 Supreme Court
Annexe 459 Lonsdale St
Melbourne

Location

455-469 Lonsdale Street, MELBOURNE VIC 3000 - Property No B2935

Municipality

MELBOURNE CITY

Level of significance

State

Victorian Heritage Register (VHR) Number

H1478

Heritage Listing

National Trust

Statement of Significance

Last updated on - September 10, 2007

Building Statement of Significance:

An imposing building in a flamboyant Renaissance manner carried out in beautiful material (stone). Such buildings contributed a tremendous amount towards making Melbourne the city it became. Designed by S. E. Bindley within the Public Works Office and completed in 1893.

Classified: 08/07/1971

Public Art Statement of Significance:

John Simson Mackennal's high relief, Law, is significant as a rare surviving example of a scale of architectural sculpture once common in Melbourne. It is also significant as an integral expressive and informing component of one of Melbourne's exceptional collection of public buildings, whose elaborate roof gable motif give this particular example extra quality and significance. (Australian Heritage Commission, Building Citation for the former Law Offices)

Classified 03/07/1996

Other Names Supreme Court Annexe & Court Of Appeal & Crown Solicitors' Office,

Hermes Number 65272

Property Number

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>