Statement of Significance

Last updated on - February 25, 2005

Originally the Border Hotel and licensed to its founder Robert Bain, in 1857. Ye Bewick Inn recalls much of the early history of Berwick, being the scene of the first Police Court and District Roads Board meetings, and a major staging post for the Gippsland goldrush route, as well as fulfilling the social functions of the local hostelery. The two-storied portion at the rear was added in the late 1870s.
