Statement of Significance

Last updated on - October 4, 2006

Two terrace houses of similar and harmonious design; No 146 has an additional storey to emphasize its corner position and interesting "blind" windows on the return wall to Morrison Place. No 48 has been defaced by the removal of its verandah and balcony but is capable of being restored. The iron fencing of both houses is included in the Classification.

Part of Morrison Place B Group File No 3510. Other files relating to Group 2008; 3586;-3596 inclusive
