Statement of Significance

Last updated on - May 5, 2008

Statements of Significance: Church - comprising tall nave and sanctuary, begun in 1873-4 to the design of T A Kelly and completed in 1885 by Tappin, Gilbert & Dennehy. The re-ordered interior focusses upon a memorial window and historic pipe organ.

Church Classified: 27/07/1989

Organ - A single-manual organ of six stops thought to have been built about 1880 by the Melbourne builder William Anderson. Originally placed in the rear gallery, the organ was restored and resited behind the central altar in 1977. This is a rare intact example of Anderson's work and with a case design differing from his other work.
