
Former Police Station & Bluestone Lock Up

B4775 Police Station

Location

111 - 113 Bay Street,, PORT MELBOURNE VIC 3207 - Property No B4775

Municipality

PORT PHILLIP CITY

Level of significance

Local

Victorian Heritage Register (VHR) Number

H1318

Heritage Listing

National Trust

Statement of Significance

Last updated on - December 19, 2005

The Port Melbourne Police Station, pre 1864, is significant as one of the first brick, double story police stations built in Victoria. It retains a high level of integrity and intactness and its continued use as police station until the 1990's testifies to the effectiveness of this early Public Works design.

The Lock-up, associated with the Police Station, is also significant as a good example of a simple, bluestone building again built to Public Works design and retaining a similarly high level of integrity and intactness.

The Police Station, with Lock-up, is a significant historical element in the Bay Street streetscape and a reminder of the earlier importance and vitality of the Port Melbourne area.

Classified: 01/10/1980
Revised: 03/08/1998
See also B4784 (Courthouse)

Hermes Number 66381

Property Number

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>