Organ Statement of Significance

A two-manual organ of 15 stops built in 1900-01 by George Fincham & Son, remaining unaltered from the original and retaining its original tonal scheme, mechanical action, pipework and casework, containing diapered pipes. It is one of the earliest organs surviving from the period when George Fincham took his son Leslie into partnership. Classified: 02/07/1990.

File note: Organ moved to St Joseph's Catholic Church, Edgecliff, NSW in late 1990's.
