Statement of Significance

Last updated on - January 6, 2006

The only known surviving Uniting Methodist Free Church in Victoria, built in 1858 with a pilastered Stuccoed facade distinguished by the use of a Greek Revival parapet block composition in place of the more usual pediment. The facade is largely intact but most of the Georgian windows have been replaced and the porch appears to be an afterthought; possibly dating from 1872 when the building was taken over by the Congregationalists.
