
Primary School No 2838 & Former Sloyd Room

B6691 Primary School No
2838 & Sloyd Room

Location

745 Station Street,, BOX HILL VIC 3128 - Property No B6691

Municipality

WHITEHORSE CITY

Level of significance

Demolished/Removed

Heritage Listing

National Trust

Statement of Significance

Last updated on - February 7, 2024

What is significant?

The Box Hill Primary School (1919), designed by the Public Works Department architect , S C Brittingham, is of local historical and architectural significance as a well developed and characteristic example of an "Edwardian Parapet Entrance" school. The school has played an important educational role in the history of Box Hill and is a prominent landmark. The Box Hill Sloyd Room (c 1932) is of State architectural and historical significance as a rare surviving example of the building type.

Classified: 02/10/1995

File Note: Sloyd Room destroyed by fire July 1996. The school building was razed and redeveloped in the late 1990s.

How is it significant?

The Box Hill Primary School (1919), designed by the Public Works Department architect , S C Brittingham, is of local historical and architectural significance as a well developed and characteristic example of an "Edwardian Parapet Entrance" school. The school has played an important educational role in the history of Box Hill and is a prominent landmark. The Box Hill Sloyd Room (c 1932) is of State architectural and historical significance as a rare surviving example of the building type.

Classified: 02/10/1995

File Note: Sloyd Room destroyed by fire July 1996. The school building was razed and redeveloped in the late 1990s.

Why is it significant?

The Box Hill Primary School (1919), designed by the Public Works Department architect , S C Brittingham, is of local historical and architectural significance as a well developed and characteristic example of an "Edwardian Parapet Entrance" school. The school has played an important educational role in the history of Box Hill and is a prominent landmark. The Box Hill Sloyd Room (c 1932) is of State architectural and historical significance as a rare surviving example of the building type.

Classified: 02/10/1995

File Note: Sloyd Room destroyed by fire July 1996. The school building was razed and redeveloped in the late 1990s.

Other Names Box Hill Primary School,

Hermes Number 66751

Property Number

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>