Statement of Significance

Last updated on - August 8, 2007

Individual Statement Of Significance: A particularly early stuccoed terrace (probably pre 1858) of five two storeyed houses flanked by two of three storeys. The cast iron verandahs and balconies dating from the 1880s replace the original verandah, and the chimney pots and balustraded parapet are of the same date. The corner house is intact, but with the front refaced at first floor level in more recent years, while two other houses have also been defaced, but the original French windows remain, and live well with the later nineteenth century work.
