History

The camp was used by relief unemployment workers, circa 1930 - 1935, who undertook silviculture treatment of the surrounding forest. It is unknown when the structures were removed, but one is still shown on the 1942 Heywood map.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
