Statement of Significance

Last updated on - April 22, 2005

Built about 1872 of bluestone quarried locally. Buildings include a barn, kitchen, men's quarters; smithy and woolshed. A wooden stable catered for a thoroughbred stud established in 1868 by the original owner, Henry Chalk. The stables feature unusual semi-circular windows. The continuity of design, materials and details contribute to the historical importance of the house. It is a dominant feature of the townscape and landscape.
