Statement of Significance

Last updated on - February 20, 2007

Individually classified.

Part of Group Classification with File Numbers 1392 Shire Hall, 1395 Lockup, 2474 Old Police Residence & 1391 Court House. Area bounded by Griffiths, Longfield, Leslie and Seaby Streets. Group Statement of Significance: A coherent extant group of five Municipal and related buildings, closely associated with the foundation of Stawell.

Built between 1867-68 as the Stawell Literary and Scientific Institute, it is a local landmark and is a substantially intact example of one of the few remaining 19th century mechanics/literary institutes. The building has associations with some of Stawell's most distinguished early citizens. It also housed for a time, the Stawell Commercial and Grammar School.

Part of National Trust Group Classification: 28/02/1974.
