Statement of Significance

Last updated on - October 3, 2006

The Tintaldra Bakery is locally significant as a typical small country town bakery in a good state of preservation and demonstrative of the important role played by such small commercial establishments in the early 20th century. The surviving Small & Shattell baking oven recalls the pioneering role of this Melbourne firm of specialist baking engineers, in the development of baking technology in Victoria and therefore contributes to the significance of the Tintaldra bakery.
