Statement of Significance

Last updated on - May 18, 2005

The Donna Buang Range is of regional significance due to:

- its outstanding visual importance as a component of the beautiful Upper Yarra Valley
- the magnificent panoramic views obtainable from many places within the Range
- its importance as habitat for native plant and animal species
- its role in the provision of nature-based recreational activities that are easily accessible to people of Melbourne.

LOCATION AND BOUNDARIES:

The Donna Buang Range is located approximately 40 miles east of Melbourne, generally between the townships of Healesville and Warburton. The Classified landscape is bounded in the north by the Coranderrk (Badgers) Creek and a line joining Mount Boobyalla, Boobyalla Saddle, the Knobs and Smiths Hill. To the south and west it abuts the Upper Yarra River Classified landscape and to the east the O'Shannassy Catchment Classified landscape.
