Statement of Significance

Last updated on - June 7, 2004

Rare or Localised:

A tree of a species or variety that is rare or of very localised distribution.

Outstanding Size:

A tree outstanding for its large height, trunk circumference or canopy spread.

A splendid specimen dominating the garden of the Principal's Residence. The tree is larger than the example in the RBG. The included bark union to the N-E could be incrementally removed without compromising the integrity of the tree.
