Statement of Significance

Last updated on - June 7, 2004

Contribution to the landscape
Outstanding size

A very large example of two specimens growing on a slope within a closed forest of exotic trees. A remnant of plantings by JC Cole in the 1870 - 1880s. The tree requires some canopy work - deadwood and stub removal and thinning. Ivy on the trunk should also be removed.

This tree is located 50 metres west of house.
