Statement of Significance

Last updated on - June 8, 2004

Particularly old
Outstanding size

A venerable and large example of the forest that once covered the area prior to its clearing for permanent settlement in the 1880s. Its location makes it a well-known and visible landmark from the main camping ground of the park. The tree is in good condition despite its age and exposed location.
It is located on the east slope of Mount Blowhard, above Collier Bay.
