Contribution to the landscape
Outstanding size

This tree is a large example of the species exhibiting a wide-spreading canopy. A dominant feature of the garden, which was established in 1913 by the current (1998) owners family. The tree was planted to commemorate his grandfather's safe return from Gallipoli.

Arbutus unedo is native to the Mediterranean and western Europe. Due to its presence in South West Ireland, it is also known as Irish strawberry tree
