
Creswick Avenue of Honour - Ulmus X Hollandica

T11518 Ulmus procera

T11518 Ulmus procera

T11518 Ulmus procera

T11518 Ulmus procera

T11518 Ulmus procera

Location

roadside between Kingston and Midlands Highway, CRESWICK VIC 3363 - Property No T11518

Municipality

HEPBURN SHIRE

Level of significance

Regional

Heritage Listing

National Trust

Statement of Significance

Last updated on - June 6, 2007

Contribution to landscape
Historical Value

This Avenue of Honour was planted by the Creswick Shire Council to commemorate all members of the Shire who served in the First World War. Later a large stone memorial was also erected and placed at the Kingston end of the Avenue. The names of the servicemen were inscribed on cast iron plates placed at the base of each tree. Alas, many of these plates have since been lost or broken.

This is an impressive avenue of trees growing on roadside south of the Kingston township. The condition of the trees vary from good to poor but all would benefit from a maintenance program. Amongst the Dutch Elms there is also Ash, Lombardy Poplar, White Poplar and Blue Gums.

A stone plaque reads: "Shire of Creswick Avenue of Honour: a tribute to men and women who served in the Great War 1914-1918".

Measurements: circa 01/1986

Spread (m): 19.5

Girth (m): 2.45

Height (m): 16

Spacing: 20-20.6 m.

Estimated Age (yrs): 70

Condition: Good-Fair

Access: Unrestricted

Classified: undated

Other Names Dutch Elm,

Hermes Number 71020

Property Number

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>