Statement of Significance

Last updated on - June 16, 2008

Historic town
Historical significance

Two mature specimens planted on the 19th May 1863 to commemorate the engagement of Prince Edward to Princess Alexandra. A plaque to this effect is attached to both trees. The specimen on the corner of High and Francis Streets was planted by Mrs S McKenzie and the other on the corner of High and Fountain Streets was planted by Mrs J Warnock. Both trees are of cultural and historical significance and are among the earliest known plantings in the State.
