Statement of Significance

Last updated on - June 18, 2008

Contribution to the landscape
Important landmark
Aesthetic value
Outstanding example of species.

The exact age of this tree is uncertain but it is known that the Melbourne City Council acquired the land in 1938 and the tree was planted soon after. There are conflicting stories as to whether the tree was planted as a young sapling or a semi-mature tree.

It has a lovely symmetrical canopy with a diameter of some 22 metres, attractive in any season
