Statement of Significance

Last updated on - June 16, 2008

Contribution to landscape
Historical significance

An Avenue of Honour commemorating World War I and 800m long. It is not intact due to the inclusion of 7 Platanus x acerifolia on the south side and 1 Populus alba on the north side. The avenue flanges out on the north-west side and powerlines run through the northern row. Despite this the avenue makes a significant landscape contribution as a memorial gateway to the town.

9 new Ulmus x hollandica were planted in 2003
