Statement of Significance

Last updated on - December 19, 2007

Particularly old and venerable
Outstanding size
Aesthetic significance
Commemorating historic event

This Avenue of Honour, planted in 1920, consisting of fourteen Araucaria bidwillii (Bunya Bunya Pine) commemorates World War 1. It is an unusual choice of species for a commemorative planting as Australian natives are not commonly used. There are no other Avenues of Honour which use this species on the National Trust Register.
