Statement of Significance

Last updated on - May 15, 2008

Contribution to landscape
Particularly old
Outstanding size

Two trees, about 10 metres apart, stand on the corner of Queensberry Street behind housing. It is believed that the trees were part of the garden of the Presbyterian Church that previously occupied this site. The church was moved to Malvern Road, Malvern in the 1930s.

The trees are a mature example of this species and make a valuable contribution to the urban landscape

File note 07/05/2013:Trees removed.
