History

Heritage Inventory History of Site: This land was originally purchased by William Swan Urquhart (former Government Surveyor) on 5/2/1855. The Mining Surveyor's Report of January 1861 reported that, "An application has been put in for an acre of ground at the mouth of Victoria Gully, part being old worked ground, and the other part now surfacing at the side of the gully; the applicant's purpose putting up a horse puddling machine to wash the soil."

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
