Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

The site is of moderate/low significance displaying a wide variety of artefact types (glass and ceramics) from the mid-late 1800's.

Interpretation of Site	Heritage Inventory Interpretation: This may have been the site of a hotel or an unlicensed grog shop on the road to the Bendigo goldfields. The number and variety of artefacts support such a theory, although there is no evidence of a structure, which may have been a tent or a timber shack. There is possibly a dump of historic artefacts.
