

Victorian Heritage Database Report

Report generated on - 28/09/24

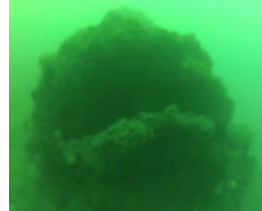

DANDENONG

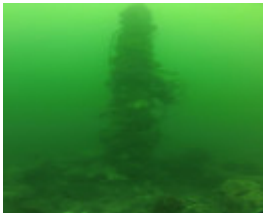

shipNo178 Dandenong
anchor 2

shipNo178 End view
Dandenong boiler

shipNo178 Dandenong boiler

shipNo178 2016 01 22
1453414388917 Priestman
steam dredge Yarra

shipNo178 Danadenong
Vertical pole and turntable

Location

Westernport Bay

Victorian Heritage Register (VHR) Number

S178

Date lost

08 Feb 1913

Official number

95991

Length/Breadth/Depth

100.00 Feet / 24.50 Feet / 7.60 Feet

Builder

Taylor, Armstrong and Co.

Year of construction

1891

Built port

Williamstown, Melbourne

Built country

Australia

Registration Port

Melbourne

Date lost

08 Feb 1913

Departure

Melbourne

Destination

Flinders Naval Depot.

Cargo

In Ballast. 8 Anchors, 4 crab winches, 2 x 400 gallon water

Owner

1895: Victorian Stevedoring Co
 1912: Royal Australian Navy

Master

Captain P.O.Davies

Cause of loss

Sunk under tow to Flinders Naval Depot

Number of crew

3

Crew comments

3 A.B.s

VHR history

The dredge Dandenong was being towed from Melbourne to Westernport for use by the navy. It began to leak and eventually sank off McHaffies Reef in Westernport Bay. Attempts to refloat the Dandenong were unsuccessful.