

Victorian Heritage Database Report

Report generated on - 30/08/24

---

ANNE AND MARY

---

Location

Bass Strait, off Lake Tyers

Victorian Heritage Register (VHR) Number

S30

Date lost

28 Jun 1887

Construction material

Wood

Hull

One deck, square stern, carvel built, woman figurehead. (Loney and others refer to the vessel as a three-masted brigantine and O'May refers to it as a schooner)

Propulsion

Sail

Number of masts

3

Length/Breadth/Depth

109.40 Feet / 23.10 Feet / 12.00 Feet

Builder

Evan Davies

Year of construction

1861

Built port

Quay Back (Quay Bach), Cardiganshire

Built country

Wales

Registration Number

3 of 1886

Registration Port

New Castle, New South Wales

Date lost

28 Jun 1887

Departure

Mersey, Tasmania

Destination

Brisbane

Cargo

Potatoes.

Owner

J. Davis of Grafton, Robert Muirhead of Newcastle

Master

Captain Campbell

Cause of loss

Sank as result of leaking seams. Foundered.

Statement of significance

It is impossible to assess the significance of the vessel as it has neither been located or inspected.

VHR history

The crew of the schooner Ann and Mary had to abandon ship when the vessel suddenly began to sink in Bass Strait. The captain and one of the crew were drowned.