

Victorian Heritage Database Report

Report generated on - 31/08/24

SHAW

Location

Wingan River, west of Mallacoota.

Victorian Heritage Register (VHR) Number

S630

Date lost

1838

Length/Breadth/Depth

0.00 Feet / 0.00 Feet / 0.00 Feet

Date lost

1838

Cargo

unknown

VHR history

The bodies and wreckage from the Shaw were found near the mouth of the Wingan River by drovers. The crew had been massacred by aboriginals. The drovers interred the bodies. They were subsequently set upon by the aboriginals and consequently left the area.