VHR history

Served sixty years in service around coast and in Port Phillip. Some cargo floated away. Fresh northerly blowing. Captain sent for tugs but unable to free the vessel. By 12 June the Vessel was listing and embedded in the sand so it was abandoned . Formerly a fishing cutter. Purchased after World War I for Apollo Bay. Formerly owned by J. Holten and G. Wood(1922) Blew ashore at Apollo Bay in January 1922 but was refloated. (Apollo Bay remained relatively isolated until Great Ocean Road completed in 1930s.)
