

Victorian Heritage Database Report

Report generated on - 22/08/24

Unidentified: Oberon Point

Location

Oberon Point, Wilsons Promontory

Victorian Heritage Register (VHR) Number

S769

Construction material

Wood

Propulsion

Sail

Length/Breadth/Depth

0.00 / 0.00 / 0.00

VHR history

The remains of a relatively small vessel lie hard up against the cliff face just south of Oberon Point. The wreckage, consisting of pieces of wood and iron, and two anchors wedged between rocks, is widely scattered and no coherent structure has yet been observed.