

Victorian Heritage Database Report

Report generated on - 05/10/24

BONNIE

Location

Port Melbourne Lagoon, Hobsons Bay

Victorian Heritage Register (VHR) Number

S79

Date lost

14 Dec 1933

Propulsion

Motor

Length/Breadth/Depth

28.00 Feet / 0.00 / 0.00

Date lost

14 Dec 1933

Departure

Moored

Weather conditions

Southerly gale; gusts 55 mph (UID: 99)

Cause of loss

Broke loose from moorings, fouled another craft, and was smashed to pieces against concrete wall (UID 52).
Broke up

Statement of significance

It is difficult to assess the significance of this vessel as it has neither been located nor inspected. It is possible that the vessel will be of limited archaeological significance as the vessel was "smashed to pieces" and little may remain at the site. Insufficient historical information makes it difficult to assess any historical or technical significance.

VHR history

The fishing launch broke loose from its mooring in Lagoon, fouled another craft, was smashed to pieces against a concrete wall. (ID 52)