

Victorian Heritage Database Report

Report generated on - 27/09/24

---

TWO C

---

Location

Ninety Mile Beach

Victorian Heritage Register (VHR) Number

S888

Date lost

Oct 1898

Construction material

Wood

Propulsion

Sail

Number of masts

1

Length/Breadth/Depth

0.00 / 0.00 / 0.00

Date lost

Oct 1898

Departure

Tamboon Inlet

Destination

Lakes Entrance

Cargo

150 baskets of bream

Owner

William Carstairs

Master

William Carstairs

Weather conditions

south west storm threatening

Cause of loss

foundered in bad weather

Number of crew

1

Crew comments

Ned Currie (deckhand), previously deckhand on County Antrim

VHR history

Pioneer Gippsland fisherman William Carstairs decided to risk a journey from Tamboon Inlet to Lakes Entrance with an approaching south-west storm. The vessel never arrived, the only sign of it ever found was a hat belonging to William Carstairs washed ashore on Cape Conran.